

Welcome to the General Information for the Public and Media section of the First Circuit's website. As its title suggests, this section includes news about developments within the five judicial districts of the circuit: Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Puerto Rico and Rhode Island.

We invite you to rely on this section for press releases and other timely information of interest to the public in general and the bar in particular.

This section contains links to the website of the Federal Judicial Center in Washington, D.C., where you will find historical information about the courts in this circuit and online biographies of federal judges. In addition, there is a link to a section on Understanding the Federal Courts on the website of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts.

The Deputy Circuit Executive will answer any questions you have regarding news media issues. She can be contacted by email at Susan_Goldberg@ca1.uscourts.gov or by phone at 617-748-9614.
