Per Curiam. Plaintiff Coltin appeals from a summary judgment dismissing all claims in his complaint on the merits. The complaint asserted claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, as well as state law claims of false arrest and malicious prosecution. Upon de novo review of the judgment in light of the parties' briefs and appendix materials, we affirm substantially for the reasons set forth in the district court's thorough and well-reasoned opinion of May 5, 1999, and in the order denying reconsideration of June 9, 1999.

Affirmed. See Loc. R. 27(c).
